This excellent ground floor flat has a wealth of character and is located a few paces from Halesworth's Marketplace. The property is particularly notable for its large light and spacious living area which has a fireplace with logburner and range of kitchen units with natural timber worksurface having stainless steel sink inset, four electric hob and built in oven. The living area leads to the bedroom, a good double and off this is the bathroom with rolltop bath, pedestal wash basin and WC. Being in good decorative order this flat would seem to be a good first time buy or has investment potential and to appreciate it earliest viewing is strongly recommended.
